

experience Journey map

Use this framework to better understand customer needs, motivations, and obstacles by illustrating a key scenario or process from start to finish. When possible, use this map to document and summarize interviews and observations with real people rather than relying on your hunches or assumptions.

Document an existing experience

Narrow your focus to a specific scenario or process within an existing product or service. In the Steps row, document the step-by-step process someone typically experiences, then add detail to each of the other rows.

As you add steps to the experience, move each these "Five Es" the left or right depending on the scenario you are documenting.

SCENARIO

Protecting crops from animals and birds, measuring parameters like temperature, humidity

Entice

How does someone initially become aware of this process?

Enter

What do people experience as they begin the process?

Engage

In the core moments in the process, what happens?

Exit

What do people typically experience as the process finishes?

Extend

What happens after the experience is over?

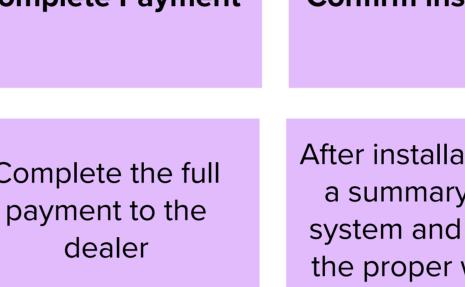

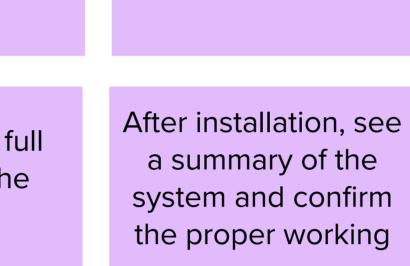

What does the person (or group) typically experience?

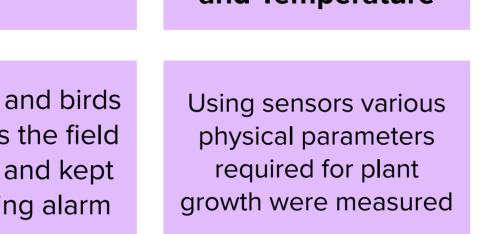

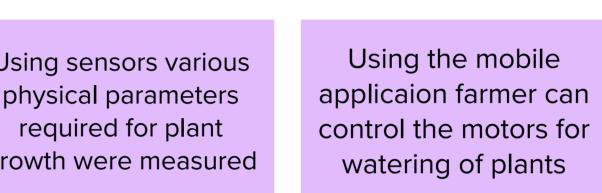

clear sense

Interactions

What interactions do they have at each step along the way?

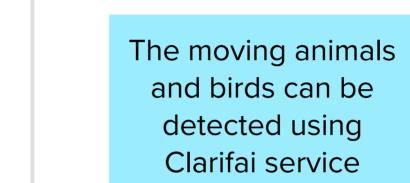

- People: Who do they see or talk to?
- Places: Where are they?
- Things: What digital touchpoints or physical objects would they use?

Goals & motivations

At each step, what is a person's primary goal or motivation? ("Help me..." or "Help me avoid...")

Positive moments

What steps does a typical person find enjoyable, productive, fun, motivating, delightful, or exciting?

Negative moments

What steps does a typical person find frustrating, confusing, angering, costly, or time-consuming?

Areas of opportunity

How might we make each step better? What ideas do we have? What have others suggested?
